Koro Creek Bushveld Golf Estate is a great place to live — not just for golf lovers, but for family

This Golf Estate offers good security, a strong community feel, and plenty of activities for all ages. There are also good schools nearby for children of all grades.

If you're planning to retire, you'll enjoy the quiet surroundings and the chance to see wildlife up close, even right outside your home.

The area is known for outdoor activities like hiking, 4x4 trails, family holidays, and even luxury hunting safaris. It's also close to shops, restaurants, hot springs, and game reserves. Pretoria is only 90 minutes away.

Living here means you could wake up to the sight of impalas in your garden or the sound of birds in the morning.

The estate has 24-hour security and controlled access at the gates.
